

TAKEHIRO KANEGI

PROFILE

Passionate and dedicated high school teacher with expertise in mathematics and science. Focused on empowering students to excel academically and fostering critical thinking skills in a supportive and engaging classroom environment.

CONTACT

- 123-456-7890
- reallygreatsite.com

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Mathematics Education

Rimberio University, March 2017

Bachelor of Science in Physics

Salford & Co. University, March 2015

SKILLS

Professional

- Advanced knowledge of mathematics and physics curricular
- Lesson planning and differentiated instruction
- Proficiency in technology-enhanced learning tools (Moodle, Microsoft Teams)
- Fluency in Japanese and English

Individual

- Classroom management and student motivation
- Effective communication and mentoring skills

EXPERIENCE

High School Mathematics Teacher

International High School, April 2017 - Present

- Designed and delivered lessons in calculus, algebra, and physics for grades 10-12.
- Conducted after-school tutoring sessions, improving student test scores by 20%.
- Organized annual STEM fairs, engaging students in hands-on science projects.

Teaching Assistant

Kyoto University, April 2015 - March 2017

- Assisted professors in grading assignments and mentoring undergraduate students.
- Facilitated discussion groups to enhance student understanding of advanced topics.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Published a research paper on "Innovative Methods in STEM Education" in the "Journal of Education" (2020)
- Led the school's mathematics team to win first place in the National High School Math Competition (2019)